In Memoriam

Linda Hicks

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord with me abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee;
Help of the helpless, O, abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O, Thou who changest not, abide with me.

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness;
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

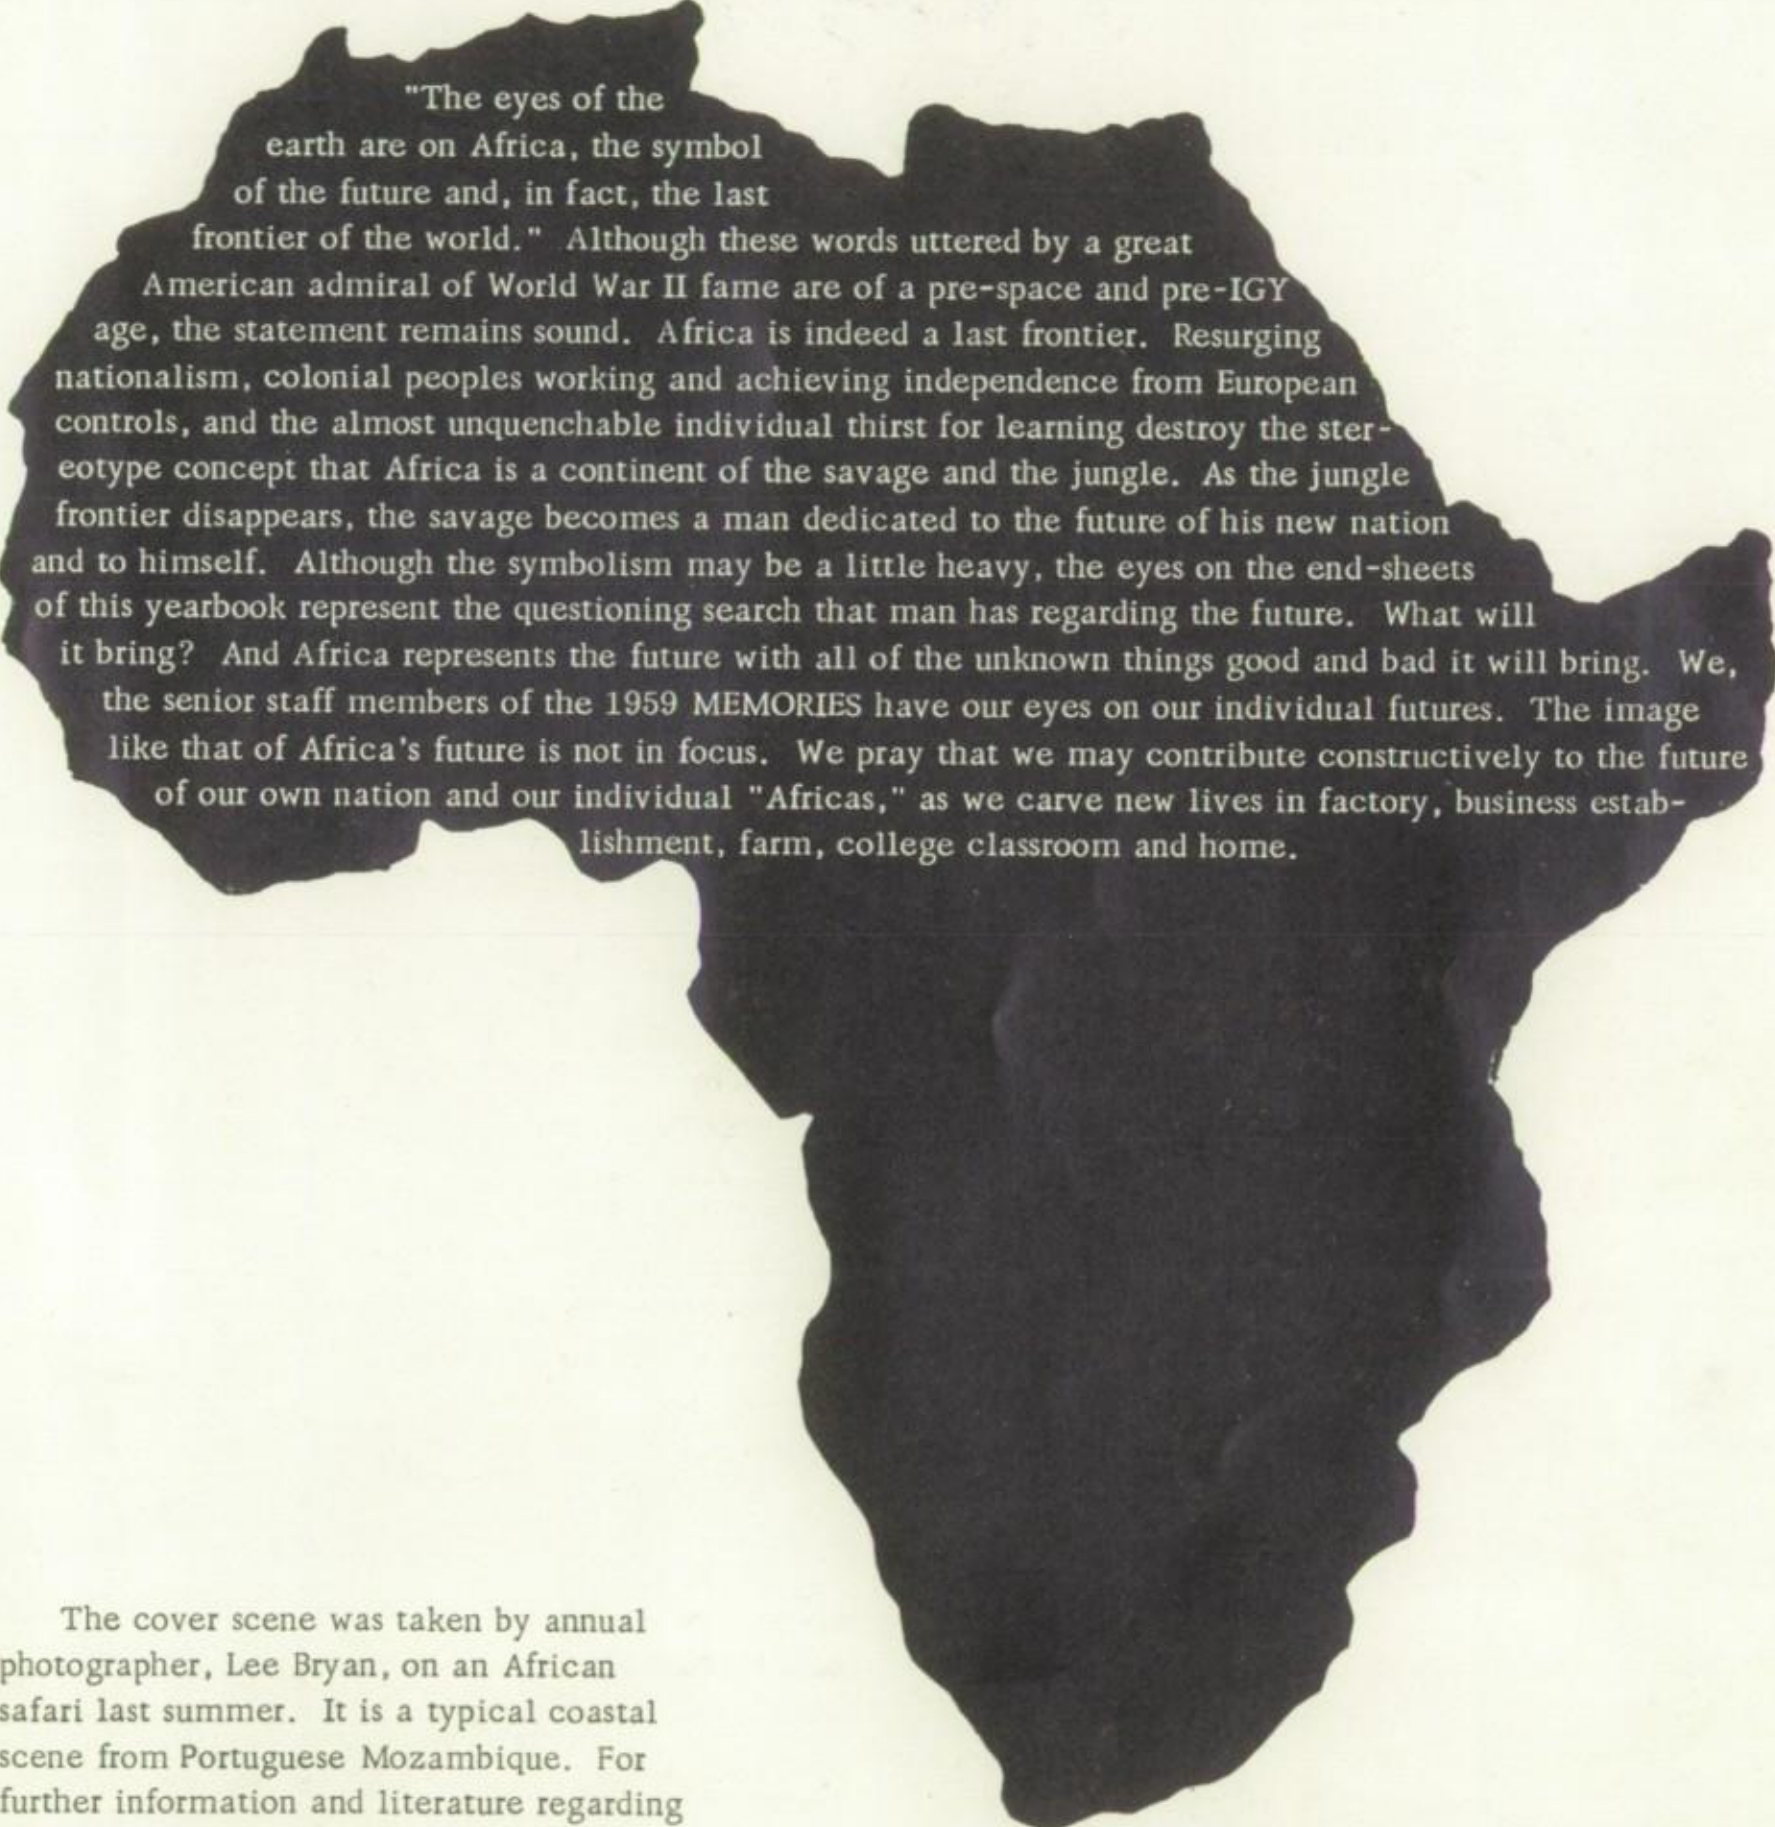

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heav'n's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption,
And this mortal shall have put on immortality,
Then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written,
Death is swallowed up in victory.
O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?
The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.
But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

I Corinthians 15: 54-57

Why Africa Is Our Theme

"The eyes of the earth are on Africa, the symbol of the future and, in fact, the last frontier of the world." Although these words uttered by a great American admiral of World War II fame are of a pre-space and pre-IGY age, the statement remains sound. Africa is indeed a last frontier. Resurging nationalism, colonial peoples working and achieving independence from European controls, and the almost unquenchable individual thirst for learning destroy the stereotype concept that Africa is a continent of the savage and the jungle. As the jungle frontier disappears, the savage becomes a man dedicated to the future of his new nation and to himself. Although the symbolism may be a little heavy, the eyes on the end-sheets of this yearbook represent the questioning search that man has regarding the future. What will it bring? And Africa represents the future with all of the unknown things good and bad it will bring. We, the senior staff members of the 1959 MEMORIES have our eyes on our individual futures. The image like that of Africa's future is not in focus. We pray that we may contribute constructively to the future of our own nation and our individual "Africas," as we carve new lives in factory, business establishment, farm, college classroom and home.

The cover scene was taken by annual photographer, Lee Bryan, on an African safari last summer. It is a typical coastal scene from Portuguese Mozambique. For further information and literature regarding travel in South Africa, please consult your local travel agent or write direct to the nearest office of the SOUTH AFRICAN TOURIST CORPORATION.

SENIORS

Gary Scott-- Everybody is ignorant, only on different subjects.

Maryann Holtz-apple--When angry, count to four; when very angry, swear.

Karen Nusbaum--
The smaller the head, the bigger
the dreams.

Jim Patton--He
is old enough to know worse.

Sharon Miller--
It seems such a pity that Noah
and his party did not miss the boat.

Dennis A. Stemen
--They say the
good die young,
so I am careful.

Dave Morris--
When I'm not engaged in thought, I'm recovering from
it's effect.

Joan Meyer--She
looks like an angel, and acts
like one too, but
you never can tell
what an angel
might do.

Dwain Metzger--
It is easy for men
to talk on one thing and mean
another.

Kay Donovan--As
I think, so I speak.

Darlyn Hefner--
Full of mischief
and a lot of fun.

John Desenberg--
An artist should be fit for the best society and keep out of it.

Joyce Hollar--
There is a lot to say in her favor,
but the other is
more interesting.

Ronnie Shafer--I
have never let my schooling interfere with my education.

Mike Miller--I kissed my first woman and smoked my first cigarette on the same day; I have never had time
for tobacco since.

Carolyn Musser--
When some folks
don't know anything mean about someone, they switch the subject.

Steve Timmons--
When I want to read a book I write one.

Janice Laman--
The things most people want to know about are usually none of their business.

Donna Leist--The
woman with a
past, has no future.

Gary Hermon--
He was born silly
and had a relapse.

Janet Morris--
Never buy a thing
you don't want merely because it is dear.

Dick Ladd--He
is an adventurer
who traces leaky plumbing to its source.

Bob Smith--There
is no cure for birth or death save
to enjoy the interval.

Emma Ruff--
Really and truly
--I've nothing to wear.

Darrel Bowers--
If you're there
before it's over,
you're on time.

Sue Chapman--
She is an excellent creature,
but she never can remember which came first, the Greeks or the Romans.

Karen Fair--I'm
not arguing with you--I'm telling you.

Larry Holler-- Whoever thinks
of going to bed
before twelve o'clock is a scoundrel.

Judy Miller--She
was permanently
waved both as to hair and figure.

Dick Hollar-- Women are just
like elephants,
I like to look at them, but I wouldn't want one.

Eldon Heatwole--
All I know, is what I read in the comics.

Helen Good--
There are no
secrets better
kept than the secrets that everybody guesses.

Charles Clark--
Of two evils choose the prettier.

Janice Stalter-- Hard work and ambition leads to success.

Karen Arnold--
If you want to be thought a liar
always tell the truth.

Dennis L. Stemen
--He had reason
for not working;
he said your body
was only a machine and he was no mechanic.

Carolyn Wade--
She liked to like people, therefore
people like her.

Roger Woollum--
It used to be a good hotel, but that proves
nothing--I used to be a good boy.

Ray Sroufe--His
by-word is sports.

Marian Ehresman
--I can resist
everything except temptation.

Gary Barber--Be good and you will be lonesome.

Wilma Long--To avoid criticism, do nothing, say nothing, and be nothing.

Donna McKinney--If you would keep a secret from an enemy, tell it not to a friend.

Gary Longbrake--I rise from bed the first thing in the morning, not because I'm dissatisfied with it, but because I cannot carry it with me during the day.

Judith Croft--One can be bored until boredom becomes mystical experience.

David Kesler--Give me a laundry list and I'll set it to music.

Cloyd Ridenour--Not that I love study less, but I love fun more.

Connie Follas--When in doubt, tell the truth.

Lee Bryan--Better
a witty fool than
a foolish wit.

Marilyn Wade--
Never buy a thing
that you don't want merely because it is
dear.

Sharon Foust--
If you tell the truth you don't have to remember anything.

Kenny Holtzapple
--A well-lied lie
is the first serious
step in life.

Janell Stocton-- Silence is sometimes better than words.

Kenny Heath--
The less one has to do, the less
time one finds
to do it in.

Marvin Wilkins--
He was not made for climbing the tree of knowledge.

Connie Shepherd
--When I was young I used to think that money
was the most important thing
in life; now that I am old, I know
it is.

Tom Becker--
He's old enough
to know worse.

Lucretia Bice-- Clever people never listen and stupid people
never talk.

Jeanine Williams
--Why resist
temptation--there will always be more.

Bill Kline--I will praise any man
that will praise
me.

Oscar Etgen--Talk
to a man about himself and he will listen for hours.

Kenny Huber--He
that teaches himself hath a fool
for a master.

Alfonso Mauricio
--The more fun
the better.

Rita Miller-- God created women only to tame man.

Don Redd--I could sit in a field of posies
all day and smell them.

Harold Stockman
--He charged nothing for his preaching, and
it was worth it,
too.

Mrs. Dorothy Workman
Class Advisor Congratulations
on a splendid annual!

Mr. George Greenway Class Advisor I can't understand how you manage to be such a live wire when you have so many loose connections upstairs.

Senior Class Prophecy

After cruising for 10 years about the planet earth as the first man put into orbit, I grew lonely and parachuted down. When I was just about to hit the ground I was jerked to a sudden halt. I looked up and saw that my parachute was caught in the WIMA Radio Antenna, so while I waited for help, I plugged in my pocket transistor to listen to some music. The music was interrupted by the announcer, Ray Sroufe (who attributed his radio success to his excellent grades in speech at Elida Local). Ray began telling of an African tour leaving Lima Municipal Airport in approximately fifteen minutes. Since I always wanted to go on a safari, I unsnapped my parachute and shinnied down the antenna.

After I arrived at the airport, I joined the line to the ticket window, I looked through and there selling was no other than Jeanine Williams. As I climbed up the ramp into the plane I was greeted by a double hostess, I mean twin hostesses, in fact, the Wade twins. The twins took me to the front of the plane, to introduce me to the hostess of the WIMA tour. As she said, "Meet Carolyn Musser, Easter Straker's fabulous replacement," I could easily see why she had earned her job. When Carolyn heard my story, she invited me to join their tour. I happily agreed to her offer and started to make myself acquainted with the passengers on the plane. The first seat was occupied by those two millionaire playboys, Larry Holler, and Bill Kline. Seated on the opposite side, was the winner of the Indianapolis "500" this year, Lee Bryan with his girl friend, Sue Chapman, holder of the women's dirt-track record.

In the seats behind the millionaires was a group of movie makers going to Africa to make the movie "Last of the Mau Maus." The theme song was to be sung by the singing lyre, Miss Joan Meyer, dubbed "the last of the red-hot Mau Maus." Also in the group was Joan's cohorts the "Blastones." These three girls whose names are Karen Fair, Rita Miller, and Connie Follas, had brought along with them their personal manager, the noted man-about-town, Mr. Kenneth "Barney" Holtzapple. The female lead of the movie was to be Joyce "Glamor Girl" Hollar. Opposite her in the male role was the Rudy Vallee of today, Gary "lover boy" Hermon. These two graduates often trying to break into Hollywood for several years finally went to one of the best promoters in the business and hired him as their agent. They immediately shot to the top under his direction. Fightin' Dave and his, "OOPS" I forgot to tell you his name, naturally, we all remember him, "Fightin' Dave Morris" and his pokey personal secretary, Sharon Miller. (Sharon slows Dave down to where he can work.)

Farther on down the aisle was a pair of honeymooning couples, "SIGH" what lovely looking matches--Darrel Bowers and Judy Croft and Eldon Heatwole with the ex-Helen Good. Yes, life is grand! Suddenly, the plane lurched and staggered, one of the motors was afire. I rushed to the pilot's cabin to check our position. The pilot and co-pilot were sending out an S.O.S. on our position while the flight engineer was trying to fight the fire. Yes, just seeing the smooth co-operation of these three leaders was satisfying. Certainly no one can say that Dwain Metzger and George Ronald Shafer would be beat as pilot and co-pilot, while their hard-working engineer, Dennis L. "Dunk" Stemen, was positively brilliant in his field. As the plane crashed, I blacked out; the last thing I heard was "Dunk" saying, "right in the middle of pink petrifying pigmy country." When I awoke, I tried to move but couldn't--I was tied hand and foot. I looked about and saw the rest of our group about me. EGADS! What is this dancing toward us? It's a witchdoctor, wow, what a dancer, almost like, like, oh, no, it is; it's our old "buddy" Roger Woollum. He has a knife in his hand and he's coming this way. Behind him are several women coming out of huts with--why they're large cooking pots! But even these women look familiar. Over to my left are Janell Stockton and Connie Shepherd fighting to see who gets "Fightin' Dave," while on my right Karen Nusbaum and Emma Ruff are trying to lift a pot full of people. There, going to help them, is Maryann Holtzapple. Well, friends, this is it. I am on the menu for tonight. I'm in the pot now and beneath it they're piling wood for a fire! Gee, look, there's Darlyn Hefner and Janet Morris, pulling whole trees down. Boy, are they eager. On top, they're putting in vegetables and salt. The cooks are Karen Arnold, Lou Bice, Donna McKinney, and Marian Ehresman. "Little too much salt, girls." Ha, ha, can't stand salty food.

Wait, what's going on out there? Wait until I get this carrot out of my eye. Now, Yea!! We're saved! Coming over the hill is the Foreign Legion. Who's that at command? Why, is that dashing hero Dick Ladd? Dick made captain again! He was demoted for filling in the Suez Canal last week. Dick has his four trusty lieutenants with him. Here they come all in a row! They are Kenny Huber, Gary Longbrake, Bob Smith, and Cloyd Ridenour. Well, the fight is about over now. Dick's men have pulled a few more of the cooks out of hiding. There are Wilma Long and Jancie Stalter.

Watch out! Oh, two more just attacked Mike Miller and Jim Patton, two of Dick's more famous men. Mike had been hurt but they got their men, er--I mean cooks. Who are they? Yes, they are none other than Janice Laman and Donna Leist. Mike is being helped over to the nurse's tent for first aid. Boy, I think I'll hurt myself. Why there are among the nurses, Kay Donovan and Sharon Foust. The two doctors are consulting over Mike's injury. Dick Hollar seems to be asking Harold Stockman if the doctors will need help. Harold agreed and so the noted surgeon, Dr. D. A. Stemen and Dr. Thomas Becker are sent for. Soon a plane lands in the clearing and out of it steps the doctors.

Right behind them is a large crowd of newsmen. There's John Desenberg and David Kesler from the Times, and their photographer, Charlie (Snap) Clark, Kenny Heath, and Oscar (Clicker) Etgen.

After these people, come the pilot and co-pilot, Don (Flash) Redd and Marvin (Fireball) Wilkins with the government inspectors, Gary Barber and Steve (Eagle Eye) Timmons.

Now all is done but the arguing. It seems that caught in the burning engines intake was a parachute harness which caused the fire. Dunk says that as they were taking off over Lima, they caught it but the inspectors say it is impossible. They say no one has parachuted around Lima for many years, "He don't know me, do he? Ha, Ha!"

Seniors' Last Wills

- I, Karen Arnold, will my job as compiler on the Bulldog Review to Linda Long.
- I, Gary Barber, will my will to study to Bill Dunahay.
- I, Tom Becker, will my ability to sleep through P.A.D. class and still pass to anyone who wants to try it.
- I, Lucretia Bice, will my dumbness to Mr. Hayduk after four years of trying to teach me English.
- I, Lee Bryan, will my driving ability to Ray Strayer.
- I, Charles Clark, will my free passes to the ball games to Ronnie Joseph.
- I, Sue Chapman, will my position in cheerleading to Myrna La Rue.
- I, Judith Croft, will Mr. Sluss 90 straight jackets in assorted size and color in case he has the senior home room next year.
- I, John Desenberg, will my No. 37 football jersey to a rough, tough, moth.
- I, Kay Donovan, will my ability to smile at Mr. Sluss at all times to any other innocent.
- I, Marian Ehresman, will the book reports in English, back to Mr. Hayduk.
- I, Oscar Etgen, will my strength and good looks to Tom Miracle.
- I, Karen Fair, will my height to any short girl that wants it.
- I, Connie Follas, will my wide-awake smile to Mr. Greenway.
- I, Sharon Foust, will my old English books back to Mr. Hayduk.
- I, Helen Good, will my dimpled cheeks to Barb Martin.
- I, Kenneth Heath, will my ability to play basketball to Bill Dawson.
- I, Eldon Heatwole, will my height to Tom Kirwan.
- I, Darlyn Hefner, will my position as cheerleading captain to Judie Brillhart.
- I, Gary Hermon, will my football jersey, No. 31, to Denny Putman.

Junior Band

Mtoto Mambo Smukers (Baby Noise Makers)

The Junior Band is made up of students of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. The purpose of this band is to better prepare the students for the Varsity Band and to help their future music interests. This band is under the direction of Mr. Wollenhaupt and is in the second year of practice. This group, combined with 60% private study will help to supplement the Varsity band in the future.

The Junior Band teaches the students the basic music fundamentals and allows the students to acquaint themselves with group playing. It also teaches them the relationship of their own instrument or section to the entire group. It teaches the students the music terms and their application and general musicianship. They learn the marching fundamentals which in the future will help the Varsity Marching Band. Continued interest in this band is producing some very favorable results.

Student Council

Mundumugus (Wise Men)

The Student Council of Elida High School has had a very successful year under the direction of Mr. Sluss. The Student Council is Elida's leading service organization. The Council is a member of the Ohio Association of Student Councils. The organization is composed of members from grades 7 to 12. To become a candidate for Student Council, one must have at least a 3 average in all subjects. Regular meetings of the Council were held every two weeks on Wednesday alternating between the 6th and 8th periods. The organization's purposes are: to encourage better school spirit, to set high standards of student citizenship, to promote better understanding between students and faculty, to further the interests of all recognized school activities, to improve the appearance of the school and school grounds, and to assist the administration in many problems concerning school-law violations. The Council has five committees which are needed in carrying out its purposes. They are as follows: the Ways and Means Committee, the Handbook Committee, the Maintenance Committee, the Citizenship Committee, and the Election Committee which is in charge of establishing a democratic procedure for all class and Student Council elections.

Among the activities and accomplishments of the Council are: publishing a student handbook, decorating and managing Homecoming, collecting clothing for the World Clothing Drive, student exchange program with Columbus Grove, a joint trophy between Columbus Grove for the football games, and various assemblies to promote better school spirit. Let's give the Council a vote of thanks for its hard work and to its President, Mike Miller for his fine leadership.

Future Farmers of America

Akai (Share Croppers)

The Future Farmers of America is a group of boys who believe in the future of farming. Their purpose is, "To practice brotherhood, honor rural opportunities and responsibilities, and develop those qualities of leadership which a Future Farmer should possess."

The boys have projects which include livestock and crops. They also make, in shop, articles that can be used around the home and farm. To raise money for the Elida Chapter, the boys sell field seed to the farmers in the Community, construct booths in the farm shop as part of the school carnival, and make and sell other small projects and articles for the chapter funds.

On field trips, which the Chapter takes frequently, the boys learn to judge cattle and soil. They also go to farms and learn to do small jobs that save the farmer unnecessary expenses.

Once a month the boys hold their Chapter Meeting where they discuss problems and conduct the other transactions of business. After their meeting the boys have refreshments and recreation.

This year there are twenty-one members in the Elida Chapter and six associate members. Any boy who is a member of the Vocational Agriculture class can be a member of the F.F.A. The Vocational Agriculture teacher, Mr. George Landon, presides as advisor of the Elida Chapter.

Tinni-Katas (Can Openers)

Future Homemakers of America is composed of girls from grades 9-12 who have had at least one year of Home Economics. The purpose of the organization are as follows: (1) To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking. (2) To emphasize the importance of worthy home membership. (3) To encourage democracy in home and community life. (4) To work for good home and family life for all. (5) To promote international good will. (6) To foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life. (7) To provide wholesome individual and group recreation. (8) To further interest in home economics. The distinguishing colors are red and white. The colors are symbolic of youth--youth which has courage and determination to succeed, yet has innocence and purity. It is also symbolic of home life, and the success of which is of utmost importance. The motto of the Future Homemakers of America, Toward New Horizons, expresses the purpose of the organization--learning to live better today in order that our lives and those of our families may be better tomorrow.

Office Help

Zubi wa Capita (Helpers of the Boss)

This group of students helps in the various offices of the school assisting Mr. Gilliland, Mr. Radulovich, Mr. Leis, and Mrs. Holtzapple. Each student works one period a day doing such things as making out absentee reports, typing various reports, and answering the phone. These students receive no scholastic credit for their hard work but they do deserve much recognition for their service to the school.

Junior Class Play

The Junior Class of Elida High School presented the comedy "Nothing But The Truth" on February 5 and 7.

The cast was composed of six girls and five boys with Tony Arnold and Penny Lodge taking the boy and girl leads.

The three-act comedy was written by James Montgomery and directed at Elida by Mr. Robert Whittington.

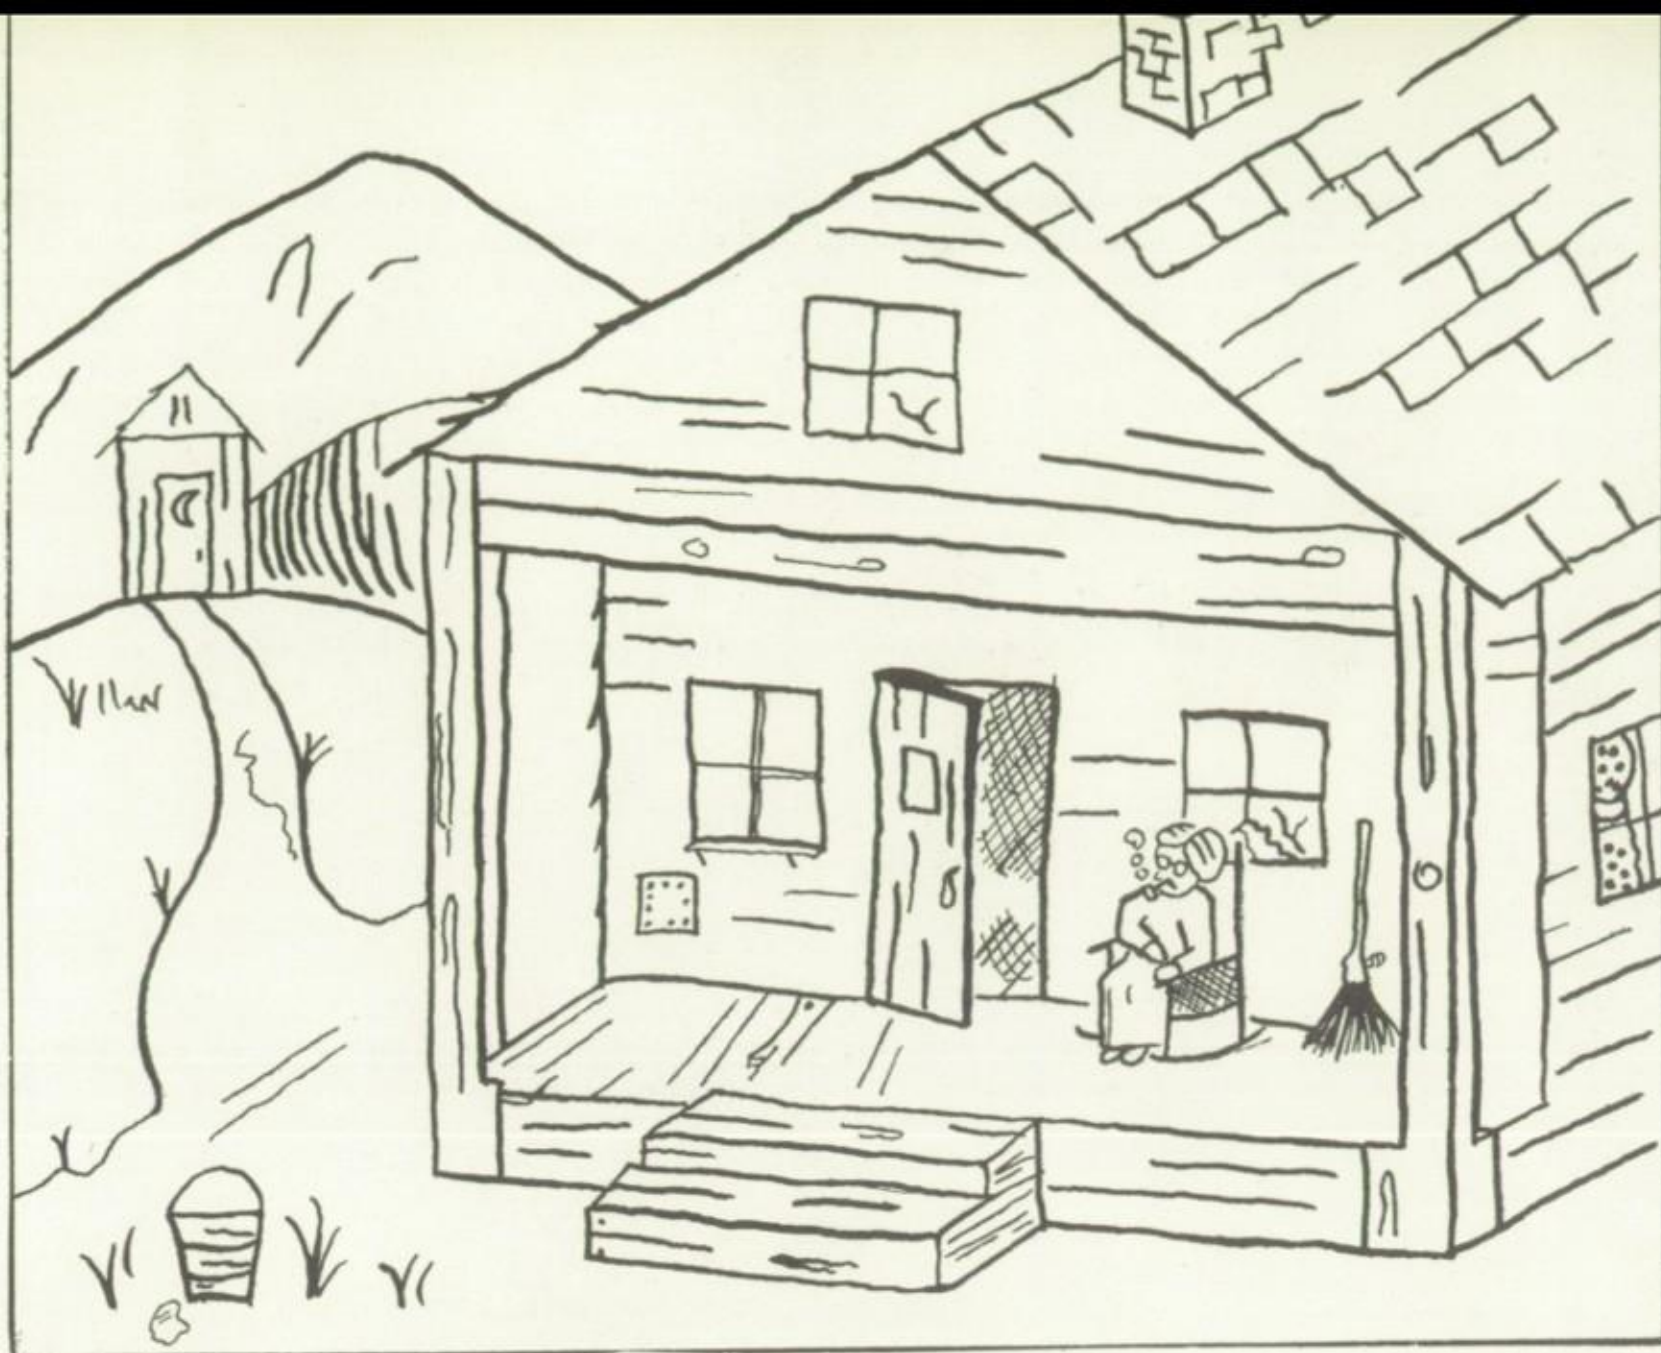

Act I begins in the interior of a broker's office in one of the principal uptown hotels. An argument begins about whether a broker should tell the truth to his clients.

E. M. Ralston (Weldon Githens), Dick Donnelly (Ton Kirwan), and Clarence Van Dusen (Jim Shafer), all partners, bet Robert Bennett (Tony Arnold) $10,000 that he could not tell the truth for 24 hours. Robert in the meantime had taken $10,000 of E. M. Ralston's daughter, Gwen (Penny Lodge), to invest it in something worthwhile.

Robert goes through all kinds of torture to prevent the rest from knowing he has Gwen's money. Besides he has to keep Gwen from knowing he used her money for the bet.

Robert struggles thru a sleepless night only to be faced the next day with more questions from his tormentors. Gwen questions his love for her and wants to know what he did with her money. While trying to evade these questions, time runs out for the bet. Robert emerges the winner not only of the bet, but also Gwen.

Senior Class Play

The farce comedy "Campbells Are Coming," written by Jay Tobias and directed by Mrs. Nester was presented by the Senior Class of Elida High School. At the time the annual went to press, the cast had not been chosen. The cast consisted of five boys and five girls. This is not a Scotch play but a hilarious farce with hillbilly trimmings describing the most effective technique for getting rid of an undesirable suitor. In order to keep Kaye from marrying a snob, the members of the family dress up as hillbillies to frighten off his family when they come to make their first visit. One riotously funny situation follows another in rapid succession. There's a laughing climax that no normal audience can resist.

The Future Business Leaders of America, which is affiliated with the State and National Organization, is sponsored by the United Education Association. The purposes of this organization is to advance business occupations and to encourage students to prepare for the business field.

Only those students enrolled in business subjects are eligible for membership in this organization. Local meetings are held once a month with special meetings called when necessary. The programs of these meetings feature personnel speakers or panels of businessmen and women.

The Elida Chapter was the recipient of the Gold Seal Award which is presented to those chapters with outstanding local programs. The chapter deserves much recognition as there have only been four chapters in Ohio receiving this award in previous years. The chapter was also named the outstanding chapter in Ohio in 1958 at the state convention. They also took 2nd place in Parliamentary Procedure. Their Local Chapter Exhibit took 2nd place at the National Convention. The officers are: Pres., Emma Ruff; V.P., Sharon Miller; Sec., Janice Laman; Treas., Murna LaRue; Reporter, Carolyn Musser.

Shaltrai Sqouts (Girl Athletes)

The Elida High School Girls' Athletic Association is an organization composed of girls in grades 10-12. The purpose of the G.A.A. is to increase athletic activity among Senior High girls, to raise the level of sportsmanship and fair play in the Elida High School, and to supply the girls' physical education department with extra equipment whenever finances make it possible. The G.A.A. has already given money towards the purchase of a trampoline, two ping-pong tables and equipment, badminton rackets, and volleyballs. Another activity which has become quite popular with our G.A.A. is the playing of basketball with G.A.A. organizations of area schools. Our general activities include the sponsoring of the Homecoming Dance and Christmas Dance.

Junior Achievement

Shenzis et Bibis Washauri. (Men and Women of Business)

Junior Achievement at Elida School is now in its second year. It is sponsored by local businessmen, industries, and service clubs. Junior Achievement gives boys and girls experience in record keeping, producing and selling goods or services, paying and receiving wages, and using capital.

Each company, which consists of young men and women between the ages of fifteen and nineteen, chooses a name, selects products which it will produce, and applies for a charter. Each company has three advisors: a sales advisor, a production advisor, and a business advisor. After the company has chosen its product, it must sign a lease for a room in which the product will be manufactured. The company also has to purchase the raw materials for the product.

Each member of a company sells stocks to raise money for the payment of the materials and the leased room. Each member works on the manufacture of the product for which he receives hourly wages and sells the product for a commission. Any member of the company who is absent from three successive weekly meetings of the company shall lose his membership. If he presents an excuse acceptable to the president and the business advisor, he is automatically reinstated as a member.

Kathy Holtzapple is in Osja Leathers which is manufacturing key cases, coin purses, wallets, and pocket savers. Carol Pierce, Sandra Morris, and Jo An Altenburger are in the Lexco Company which is producing tool boxes and a yarn novelty. Susan Foust and Ellen Garrison, are in Nocico which is making breadboards in the shape of pigs. Don Redd is in the Bal-Trivco Company. Larry Creek and Bill Kline are in the Belco Company which is making Christmas decorations. Rita Miller, Connie Follas, Karen Fair, and Donna Leist are in the So-Kem-Gro Company which is manufacturing plant food. Roger Woollum is in the Jatel Company which is producing telephone-desk sets. Sally Searfoss is in the Westinghouse Company. Laura Bercaw and Becky Kline belong to Hi-Time which has a weekly radio program on Wednesday, 8:30 p.m.

We feel that Junior Achievement has proved to be a great success and we wish them the best of luck in the future!

Dramatics Club

Sana Shauring (Much Acting)

The Elida Senior and Junior Dramatics Club, known officially as the Stagetrotters, was organized on November 2, 1955 in conjunction with the National Thespian Organization. The purpose of the club is to enable the members to become better acquainted with dramatic procedures and techniques in order to enjoy the art of dramatics to a fuller extent. The club produces many various types of production during the school year. Club directors are Mr. Crites and Mr. Hayduk.

Varsity Football

Axelot Njamas (Bloody Warriors)

The 1958 edition of the Elida gridders was a most interesting and exciting one to behold. Sparked by a nucleus of determined seniors, combined with much-improved juniors and a crop of eager sophomores, the Bulldogs displayed some very fine football for their followers.

In capturing the co-championship of the Northwest Conference, this ball team accomplished a feat that was considered virtually out of reach at the beginning of the season. There seemed to be too much inexperience to cope with some of the veteran powerhouses that had to be faced in the course of the season. However, with such outstanding all-round performers as Ron Shafer, John Desenberg, and Ray Sroufe, the development of Gary Hermon into a fine offensive guard and defensive end, the rugged play of Dick Ladd as a guard and linebacker, the pass receiving of Dwain Metzger, the defensive efforts of Don Redd, the development of Gary Scott into a strong tackle, and some aggressive late-season play by Dave Morris, the fever spread through the underclassmen on the squad and the 1958 Elida Bulldogs were not to be denied their well-deserved bit of glory.

Two elderly spinsters were discussing a third. "Well," said one old maid, "I see Josie is finally engaged."

"Not really," said her friend, in surprise. "How did she land a man?"

"She saw his picture in the Post Office, and just offered $100 more than the police were bidding."

PREFERENCE

Her husband came tottering home at 3 A.M., and she was up to greet him. "Well. You're home at last. You've decided home is the best place after all, is that it?"

"Home," said hubby, "is the only place that's open at this hour."

MACLEAN'S

The little boy came running home from his first Sunday School class and his daddy picked him up and asked:

"Well, sonny, and what did you learn in Sunday School today?"

"I learned about the cross-eyed bear named Gladly," the boy said.

"That's something new," his father said. "Tell me about it."

"We sang a song about him," the boy said, "Gladly the Cross I'd Bear."

"I don't understand why your parents sent you to see me," said the psychiatrist after completing a thorough examination. "You seem perfectly rational to me. In fact, I would say that you are just as sane as I am."

"Exactly," cried the girl happily. "That's what I keep telling my parents. But just because I like apple dumplings they think I'm crazy."

"That's absurd," retorted the psychiatrist. "Why, I like apple dumplings myself."

"You do?" squeaked the girl in sheer joy. "Well, really, you must come over to our house and try some of mine. I have closets full of them."

Little five-year-old Taddy, reports the Christian Science Monitor, had been in Kindergarten for several weeks without showing any signs of being an outstanding student. Therefore, when he trotted home after school one day with a large gold star pinned to his shirt, his surprised but pleased mother asked what the reward was all about.

"Well," said the child proudly, "every day we rest for 15 minutes, and today I rested the best."

The big city's philharmonic orchestra had just performed a symphony at a small town theatre. As the great conductor was leaving the theatre, he was stopped by an intense-looking stranger.

"I feel I must tell you," said the stranger. "Those men who play the instruments that slide in and out—they only play in the intervals when you're looking at them."

LEGACY

Mrs. Newlywed greeted her husband as he returned from the office with copious crocodile tears and a telegram.

"I had to open the telegram," she said. "Your rich uncle has passed away."

After a short pause she couldn't contain herself any longer.

"He mentioned you in his will, didn't he?" she asked.

"Yes, he did," her husband said, "but I wouldn't care to repeat what he said."

A cool musician was strolling down Broadway when he came upon an old organ grinder playing his beat-up instrument while a monkey did a little dance on the sidewalk and doffed his cap for coins. "Man," said the musician, stopping to watch, "I don't dig your music, but that crazy kid of yours has got a lot of talent."
